Crockett, Jones Win ACP's Get Two Seats

The Constitutionalist party swept the Student Government Association elections Thursday, taking all offices and all but two of the seats in the assembly.

John Crockett of the Constitutionalist party won the SGA presidency, 1352 to 801, over James Morrissey, All-Campus party candidate from the Engineering College. James Jones, (C), led the ticket with 1430 votes to top William Young, (ACP), with 722, for SGA vice-president.

A proposal to amend the SGA constitution to make it comply with the semester system carried, 1171 to 243.

Departments Get Quarters

Three departments of the College of Arts and Sciences will move to new quarters in about three weeks. Dr. M. M. White, dean, has announced.

The Sociology, Anthropology, Geography and Political Science departments will take over the temporary building between the library and the stadium as soon as classrooms are completed. Offices of these departments moved into the building this week.

With the activation of this and two other temporary units, the engineering building on Scott Street, and the Guilford Theater near the women's dorms, the University will halt the most extensive temporary expansion program in its history.

Sigma Chi To Award 'Best Dressed' Titles

Collegiate fashion will be emphasized on the campus during the next few weeks as coeds and men students vie for the right to participate in the third annual "Best Dressed" Contest on April 21.

Sponsored by Sigma Chi fraternity, the contest will feature representatives of fraternities, sororities, and other campus organizations in competition for the titles of "Best Dressed Man" and "Best Dressed Woman" on the University campus.

Aim of the contest is to promote interest in fashion and better dress on the campus, according to co-chairman Bill Benjamin and James Clutts. Nationally known fashion experts have accepted invitations to come to Lexington for the event. In addition to serving as judges, they are scheduled to give advice on the subject of current collegiate fashion.

"Fashion Showboat" will be the contest theme and skits are planned to portray the clothes fads from the "Gay Nineties" to the present day.

No Rent Increase, University Says

The University has good news for veterans living in Cooperstown and Shawneetown.

There will be no rent increase for veterans living there even though the increased veterans' subsistence payments make a $2 to $3 hike mandatory under the Federal Public Housing Authority's regulations. Rents there are based on income. The University says it will disregard the regulation as long as possible and is seeking permission to keep the rates as they are.

Kernel Remodeling

The Kernel plant in the basement of McVey Hall is being enlarged to make room for a new linotype and a larger paper-cutter. The work is under the supervision of the maintenance department.

Tough Boyd(s), Dese Virginians

Boyd Keenan, 19, junior from Parkersburg, W.Va., is thanking his lucky start that miracles still happen.

While running a foot race with some chums at Berea College last Sunday afternoon, Boyd slipped, fell, and slid under the double rear wheels of a two-ton truck. The wheels passed over both his legs just below the knees, but miraculously did no injury other than a few slight bruises.

"The truck driver and I were both scared silly," Boyd quipped, "and he, nor I, nor the Berea Doctor who treated me, nor the several persons who saw the freak accident can figure out why I wasn't hurt."

"I get weak every time I think about what might have happened."

Home Ec Club To Be Host For Workshop

Representatives from 49 college home economics clubs in four states are attending an annual province workshop on the campus today and Saturday. The University club is host with clubs from Asbury, Eastern and Georgetown colleges.

The workshop is an annual feature of the organization in each of the 16 provinces in the United States. Members of the college organizations are junior members of the state association and American Home Economics Association.

Dean Amis, state club president, is in charge of the program. Nora Lee Johnson, president of the University club, and Eloise Ewbank, chairman of the banquet committee, are assisting in arrangements.

Nichols, Deiss Named Editors

Fred E. Nichols, junior, and Helen Deiss, sophomore, have been elected co-editors of the 1948-49 Freshman Handbook, an informational publication distributed to all new students at the time of their first enrollment. It was announced Monday.

Selection of the two students to head the handbook staff was made by a faculty-student advisory board representing administrative officers and various student organizations. The co-editors will make a staff to start work on the publication at an early date.

The handbook was first published as a unified booklet last year and is distributed during Freshman Week in the Fall. It includes information regarding the rules and regulations of the University and dormitories, activities, traditions, personnel and organization of the institution.

Four Trees Planted Along Phalanx Walk

Rush Draft Action, Dr. Donovan Urges

University President H. L. Donovan wants the selective service system revived immediately because he says it is necessary to halt Russian aggression in Europe.

"The draft should be put into effect at once. It should not be delayed a single day," he wrote Mrs. Donovan from Germany where he is making a survey of education for the Office of Military Government.

Convinced Training Needed
Dr. Donovan said that since he had arrived in Germany he is convinced that Universal Military Training is necessary.

"The Russians mean to take over all Europe, make no mistake about it. It is only a matter of time. They probably have D-day already set," he wrote from Berlin in a letter dated Mar. 20.

To Return May 1
The University educator left for Germany on Mar. 1 and is expected to return about May 1.

Dr. Donovan expressed an opinion that "If we are strong we can keep the peace." But he warned that "when the Russians see the character of our armed forces they get the idea we will be a pushover and... it is only a matter of time" until they attempt to take over all of Europe.

Dilly-Dallying
"Why do we have to dilly-dally and wait until some country makes war on us when possibly if we were strong it would not dare to move?" he asked.

"If I have any message to you who are back home it is that we should arm now, not next summer or a year hence," he said.

From Munich on March 19, he wrote:

"I read President Truman's message to Congress. Tell my friends for God's sake to get behind his request. We are living in a fool's paradise at home. Our Army over here is only a token army."

Could Take Over
"The Russians could take over any minute they wanted to do so. It is freely said they could occupy Europe in 48 hours if they should move. We need an army here -- a good one -- or we should get out entirely. The draft should be put into effect at once. It should not be delayed a single day. It is a thousand times as serious as I thought it was before I came.

"You may tell these things to my friends at the University. Get Congress to make haste or it may be forever too late."

From Berlin the next day, he wrote urging support of UMT and the draft. "It's no use voting $5,300,000,000 for URP unless we have an army to back it up. The money will be wasted without some show of strength here," Dr. Donovan said.

ODK Coronation Ball To Present Queen, Court

The Kentuckian beauty queen, her royal court, and a "most popular man" will be presented Apr. 10 at the Kentuckian-Omicron Delta Kappa dance in the SUB ballroom. It was announced this week.

Gov. Earle C. Clements has tentatively agreed to present the beauty queen at the affair, according to George Barker, ODK president.

Tickets for the semi-formal dance went on sale this morning through fraternities and the Independent organization. A prize of $25 in records will be presented by Barney Miller's to the group selling the most tickets, Barker said.

Tinker Baggerly's orchestra will play for the dance which is scheduled from 9 p.m. to midnight, directly following the Alumni Association Basketball Banquet.

All members of the basketball team will be special guests for the dance.

Winner of the "most popular man" title will be chosen by persons attending the dance who will write the name of their choice on ticket stubs.

A "live portrait" presentation of the queen's royal court and a command performance by several campus entertainment groups will be features of the program.

Graves-Cox will present a sport coat to the "most popular man."

Candidates for the Kentuckian beauty queen title are Fawn Gray, Pat Poe, Sue Allen, Evelyn Ewing, Nancy Shinnick, and Frances White.

First students moved into the dorm at the beginning of the current quarter.

The building houses 108 men and will provide central recreation facilities for all men's dormitories.

Non-Sectarian Fraternity Accepted By UK Faculty

A new social fraternity, Tau Kappa Phi, pledge group of Tau Epsilon Phi, was recently accepted on the campus by faculty vote.

Purpose of the new group is the formation of "an actively non-sectarian chapter which would not discriminate against any prospective member because of his religious or social background."

Tau Kappa officers are Ben Cohn, president; Richard Wohlstein, vice president; Jack Goldberg, scribe; Joseph F. Daugherty, comptroller;

UK Stadium Capacity Will Be Doubled

Contracts for construction to double McLean Stadium's seating capacity are expected to be awarded April 23, Frank D. Peterson, University comptroller announced.

The construction will increase the stadium's capacity from 19,626 to 43,062.

Plans are to add 10,000 seats before the football season this fall and the additional 13,000 next year.

Additions will be made to each of the stands. On the Euclid Avenue side the stadium will be extended upward a number of rows and a press box constructed. A steel upper deck to accommodate 5,000 persons will be added to the south side. Both stands will be extended 10 yards to the goal line on each end to provide 10,000 additional seats.

Permanent steel bleachers will be erected in the end zones to give the stadium a bowl-shaped appearance.

Plans for the enlargement were drawn by Dean D. V. Terrell and Prof. Sam A. Mory of the Engineering College.

Mayor Proclaims Wildcat Day; Movie Men Here

By Haskell Short
Our heroes are coming home this morning.

Kentucky's great basketball team arrives at approximately 7:50 this morning at Union Station where several thousand fans are expected to shout, "Welcome Home, Well Done!"

Lexington Mayor Tom Moore proclaimed today, "Wildcat Day" and Acting President Leo M. Chamberlain dismissed first hour classes to allow students to join the cheering throngs. Three bands and newsreel cameramen in welcoming block to the Bluegrass the greatest college basketball team of all times.

As soon as they arrive, the champions will be escorted to a platform in front of Union Station where they will receive official congratulations from the University, the City of Lexington, and the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

They won't need an introduction. On the platform will be Kentucky's great coach, Adolph Rupp, whose coaching ability has made it possible for students to finish their four years in college without seeing the Wildcats go down in defeat at home. And there will be that group of great basketball players who host conference championships flags as easily as Kentucky colonels hold mint juleps, and who take national crowns as extra-curricular activities.

Their latest triumph which sends Captain Kenny Rollins, Ralph Beard, Alex Groza, Wah Wah Jones, and Cliff Barker and Coach Rupp to the Olympics in London this summer brought the national collegiate basketball crown.

The Kentuckians toppled Baylor to win the National Collegiate Athletic Association crown and six days later defeated Baylor again in the finals of the collegiate bracket of the Olympic Trials to win undisputed No. 1 rating in college basketball. That second victory made their claim secure because every college and university basketball team in the nation had fallen somewhere along the trail that led to the Olympic Trial collegiate finals.

After the program at the station, the champions will board a fire truck and lead a parade to the campus. Behind them will be the University band, the Lafayette and Henry Clay High School bands, a number of floats, Kentucky's cheerleaders, and a group of automobiles and marchers.

The parade will go west on decorated Main Street, south on Broadway, east on Maxwell, and south on Limestone to the University.

Lexingtonians who were never able to buy tickets to the home games showed excellent cooperation with a SuKv committee headed by Betty Ree Rhoads in arranging the program. Mayor Moore appointed a committee of civic leaders who arranged to decorate downtown streets, Union Station, and Main Street.

Today's celebration is the first in a number planned for the most celebrated of Rupp's many famous teams. Monday night Harry Warner, sports director for the American Broadcasting Company, will speak at a Junior Chamber of Commerce honoring Kentucky, and April 10 the Alumni Association will entertain them at a banquet. Tickets to the alumni banquet are on sale in the Alumni Office in the SUB.

Wednesday night's 53 to 49 defeat to the Phillips Oilers failed to distract from Kentucky's great record. Their magnificent performance before 20,000 persons in Madison Square Garden added lustre to the crowns the Wildcats already were wearing.

Kentucky stayed in the game all the way against the Oilers, a group of oil company employees whose chief duty is playing amateur basketball, who had won the national Amateur Athletic Union title last year in a row.

Letters To The Editor

Editor, the Kernel:

To a member of the Assembly, there appears to be a depressingly low interest in the Student Government on the UK campus. The stock comment among students regarding the Student Government seems to be, "What is the SGA, anyway?" followed often with a sneering laugh.

What is the reason for this? Why do students of UK, training to become community leaders, take no wholehearted interest in their own government? Is the American democratic spirit waning with people no longer respecting and recognizing constituted authority? When students laugh at the Student Government, they laugh at themselves because the Student Government is composed of them. When a student laughs at the Student Government, he is laughing at himself. If he says he did and continues to laugh, let him go on. It is those who take no cognizance of the Student Government who are hypocrites.

There is no longer valid reason for a student saying that he doesn't know about the Student Government. Many of the unnatural and undesirable party strains between organized independent students and faculty and security members are disappearing in a sincere effort to raise the Student Government to the highest standard.

Under the leadership of Claude Sprules, the Student Government has made tremendous strides toward its goal of serving the student body efficiently and effectively. New programs have been instituted, far reaching plans have been formulated, co-operation with the University faculty has been improved remarkably, and defects are being rapidly eliminated.

In the past, the maximum number of students voting in an election was fifty per cent in the spring of 1947. This year, the percentage has been far less than that. On April 1, the spring of 1948 elections will be conducted. It is the duty of every student registered in the University to examine the candidates and to vote. Then the University may look with pride upon its student body.

HARRISON R. COOPER

Editor, the Kernel:

We are taking this opportunity to answer "Interested Student's" letter which was published two weeks ago, we feel that he may be the type of student that we have something to say to.

"Interested Student" is no doubt fed up by the childish quibbles between the Greeks and Independents, and is afraid that the All-Campus Party is nothing but a newly named Independent Party, and that student government in the future will be a rehash of the same old show of which we are all sick and tired.

It is people who, like "Interested Student," want to see a positive program in SGA for the benefit of all the students that have brought the All-Campus Party into being. His objection, that no Greeks were nominated, certainly cannot be considered the fault of those who initiated the party. The meeting for nominations was announced in the Kernel, and was open to all students. The Greeks had ample opportunity to present capable candidates. However, only three or four were interested enough to attend the meeting. One fraternity man was presented for nomination, but he was generally unknown to the group present.

It seemed, then, on the basis of that meeting, that most Constitutionalist supporters preferred to continue nominating men on a local basis, and trying to elect them by block voting of their social organizations. Possibly this attitude is based on the fear that a non-Constitutionalist SGA could find nothing better to do than indulge in an orgy of anti-Greek legislation.

We are concerned, however, with action to remedy a number of student problems which have been ignored under the present system. Our platform calls for thorough investigation of all campus services which are not properly functioning for the welfare of the students. We intend to sponsor concrete benefits rather than abstract ideas.

Those active in behalf of the party include all groups of students, veterans and non-veterans, independent students and a few Greeks, strong conservatives, and equally strong liberals. Any student on the campus can be a member of our party. Our point of agreement is on one thing, that the Student Government of this University is failing to take its place in campus life, and that it ill compares with similar bodies in other universities. The average student remains unaware of its very existence.

We do not believe in a smear campaign, but we would like to know why SGA, with over $7,000 per year to spend, does not use a few cents of this to put out complete balance sheets and income statements on these funds, to be placed on bulletin boards over the campus.

We would like to know why SGA does not use the efficient purchasing system of the Comptroller's Department for its buying, and thereby get better results at a cheaper price. There are many things wrong on this campus which the administration would be glad to correct—if they were brought into attention. At present, however, no channels exist for the individual student to effectively submit his complaint or suggestions to those able to do something about it.

And now, "Interested Student," we have put before you why we are running for office. If you agree with what we have said, and you believe that we can do the job, we would like to see you join us in fighting for an SGA for all the students.

Victorious Wildcats Return

The Kentucky Wildcats, undisputed national collegiate basketball champions, have returned home to receive due homage from their fellow students, members of the faculty and staff, Lexingtonians, and Wildcat followers throughout the Bluegrass.

And they richly deserve all of the laurels which they have won, for this year's fighting basketball squad represents the best team Kentucky has ever had and perhaps the greatest outfit in the history of collegiate basketball.

Each member of the team and of the coaching staff should be congratulated on his contribution to the record of this year's squad which was composed of men who had the heart, the stamina, and the teamwork to win.

Congratulations Wildcats! All Kentucky is proud of you.

The Spice Of Life

By Helen Dorr and Pat Quinn

The biggest question this week and next is: Who is the Kentuckian beauty queen? We'll soon know because she's being presented Saturday, April 10. We'd like to give you the inside dope, but try as we will, the information just isn't to be had.

Correction please: Under constant twosomes last week, it should be Ralph Tatum and Kathy Carter. Bobby Lou Foli is back in school this quarter and everybody's wondering if she and Harold Hunt will take up where they left off at the end of Fall quarter.

Marcia "Babe Ruth" Middleton can be currently seen playing basketball in the afternoon at four o'clock. Seems as though Pie Kirkpatrick is becoming more popular each day. Could it be the arrival of spring, finally?

And speaking of popularity the phone at Lydia Brown house has been awfully busy since the arrival of Jobie Anderson with that Florida tan.

Pinnings: Nellie Payne to Don Farrell; Trudy Clay to David Beam; Margie Clegg to Bert Phillips; Ann Dennison to Larry Myers; Shirley Miller to J. Dotson; Vivienne Hambo to Bud Holt; Betsy Bitter to James Maloy; Ann Green to Mark Gay; Doris Stokes to Bryan Blount; Nancy Roberts to Frank Benton; Peggy Backley to John Heick; Joan Rhodes to Paul Fowler; Charles Hartley to Annabelle Gant; of Corbin; Ingrid Uelman to Bill Summitt; Sarah McDonald to Bill Byron; Shirley Stivers to Mark Magard.

Could it be that the Hilly Bryant and Bob Cregar romance is more than a brother-sister affair?

Ginger Bowman and Wilma Haverly didn't get to wear their Easter flowers. They were in Corbin and the flowers were here.

Janey Jameson and Alan Parrish were married over the spring holiday.

Ernest Triplett and his girl from home are having troubles, or so we heard.

For every woman who makes a fool out of a man there is another woman who makes a man out of a fool.

The Sigma Chi is wondering why all of Don Russell's girl friends call him at the house. He's a town boy and the phone calls make for much confusion.

Rage of the week: Barry Bonvill from Florida. They say he's worth talking about.

Unpinned: Margaret Yager and Phil Branch.

Have you been having trouble keeping your men separated lately? One girl we know of has.

Since Jean Vance graduated, Jack Wayman can spend his time going

Fashion Frolics

By Dottie Miller

Several spring dances are just around the corner and perhaps they mean a new formal for you. MITCHELL BAKER SMITH'S have a large collection of lovely formal in black and pastels. You have your choice of many styles. Some of the dresses have hip emphasis, others are strapless and still others come with matching gloves. You can find a becoming formal from this pretty collection.

MARTIN'S have a new shipment of faille ballerina skirts in black and navy blue. You can find one to suit your taste from their collection of ballerinas with a petticoat effect of taffeta or eyelet ruffles, or those which are untrimmed. Others are tiered with scallops at the bottom. The skirts are priced from $8.95 to $10.95.

You'll want some black ballerina slippers to go with your skirt. BROWN'S BOOTERIE have some with the buckskin sole and pleated toe, for only $3.50. They will come later in white to accompany your summer clothes.

MEYERS have some cute faille purses to go with your best clothes. The pouch bags with handles come in brown and black and sell for $5.00. One would look pretty with a faille suit or skirt.

If you're horse minded, stop at PHOENIX LUGGAGE SHOP, where a specialty is made in horse jewelry. They have all kinds of jewelry with a horse motif. One of the most popular is a tiny chinestone horse pin which sells for $1.20 including tax. They look very effective worn in pairs.

Easter morning saw a large variety of new spring clothes. In spite of chilly weather, suits and hats decked with flowers headed the Easter parade. One of the many pretty outfits was that of Betty Vaughns. She wore a fitted dressy suit of powder blue wool with brown suede accessories. An attractive brown hat and a fur scarf completed her outfit.

Capes are excellent wardrobe companions for spring. They are seen from the short cape attached to the suit, to a separate full length cape. The hip length is a good medium and appropriate for early spring. Elouise Lubank had a lovely one included in her Easter outfit. Her unique and attractive color scheme consisted of a light wool rose suit, over which she wore a hip length cape of lavender wool. Her accessories were of navy blue. The cute bonnet which she made, was trimmed with roses to match her suit.—Adv.

The telephone will be seventy-two years old this year. Its development within a single lifetime has been a modern miracle. Yet it is only the beginning.

There are any number of men in the telephone business today—some just starting out—who will see greater progress than the past has ever known.

Year by year the next half century will be increasingly theirs. New leaders will appear from among them. Step by step, rung by rung, they will mount the ladder to the top. For telephone management is employee management and comes up from the ranks.

There will be more good jobs for qualified men in the telephone business in 1958 and 1998 than now. It just can't help being that way. For of all the businesses and professions, there are few more interesting and necessary.

So the future is bright for those who make telephony their life work. For them, "The best is yet to be."

Vets Discuss Tuition Rates

A discussion of the tuition rates charged veterans will highlight the first Spring quarter meeting of the Veterans Club scheduled for 7:30 Monday night in the SUB.

Club officials said the agreement between state universities and the Veterans Administration whereby veterans are charged $4 per quarter hours has caused a few students to exceed the $500 tuition allowed for the nine-month school year.

Proposals that the University has made to the VA to refund the overpayments will be discussed and the veterans are expected to draft resolutions to Congress seeking to prevent similar situations.

Learn While You Eat Is Spanish Class Aim

A course in Spanish conversation (10a), to be conducted while students are eating lunch in the dining room of the girls' dormitory, will be offered by the Department of Romance Languages for the Spring quarter. Dr. Robert Ryland, head of the department announced this week.

The class, open to both men and women students who have completed four or more quarters of Spanish, will be taught by Mrs. Luke Woolridge. Women who do not live in the dorms will be charged an amount to cover luncheon costs. Dr. Ryland said. The four quarter-hour course will be held Monday through Thursday, and has been designed to prepare students who intend to take the Spanish course in Mexico to be offered by the department this summer.

Wildcats Return

The Cats were ahead or almost equal with the Oilers all the way with the exception of the first part of the second half when the Oilers went ahead 37 to 27. But Rupp's Rifles crashed that margin and went ahead 47 to 45 when Beard took an out-of-bounds pass from Rollins and sank a bucket and free throw awarded when fouled on the shot. Bob Kurland, the Oilers' seven-foot center, hit a crisp 50 tie the score and Gerald Tucker a free throw to give the Oklahoma outfit a lead it held the remaining five minutes of the game.

A 50-foot shot by Rollins knotted the count for the fifth time to dead-end the game 26 to 26 as the first half ended. The Oilers came back to outscore Kentucky 11 to 1 in the first five minutes of the second half to command a 37 to 27 lead. Then everybody's all-American Beard took over and scored six field goals and a free throw to send Kentucky ahead 47 to 45 in the next ten minutes. Kurland knotted the count at 47, and Tucker's free throw sent the Oilers ahead for keeps.

Kentucky led by seven points midway in the first half with Beard the sparkplug of a scoring spree that sent the Wildcats ahead after the score had been tied at 8. In this five-minute spurge that saw Kentucky go ahead 20 to 13, Beard got three field goals, Barker one, and Jones two free throws and a tip in.

The score was tied at 4, 5, 8, 24, 26 and 47, and the Wildcats broke ahead 5 to 4 and 10 to 8. The lead changed hands nine times with Kentucky going ahead at 3 to 2, on Groza's tip-in, 5 to 4 on Rollins' free throw, 10 to 8 on a bucket by Jones, and 46 to 45 on an out-of-bounds play pay-off by Beard. The Oilers went ahead 2 to 0 at the start, and at 4 to 3, 7 to 5, 21 to 20, 26 to 24 and 48 to 47.

Chamberlain Stresses Scholarship
The importance of scholarship in college was stressed in an address at Morehead State College yesterday by Leo M. Chamberlain, vice president of the University.

Dr. Chamberlain said "the chief purpose of any institution of higher learning is the formation of the intellectual powers of its students." Speaking at Morehead's annual Scholarship Day, he urged the students to "let your education have real breadth and depth. Don't take the easy way. It's good for you to do some things you don't like to do."

Sharpie Gives Original Twist To 'Skin Game'

By James Eddleman Jr.

The newest angle in the old "skin game" is now being practiced on a number of students. Some sharp character, evidently in possession of a Student Directory, has worked out an original scheme for victimizing students' families, especially students whose names end with "Jr."

The game works this way: The culprit, working out of another town, calls the parents of a student, always a "Jr." so far, so that he knows exactly what name to call in the home town. He tells a sad story to the effect that his car is broken down, he is out of money, and cannot contact anyone to help him.

Using a phony name, he claims to be a close friend of, say, young Jim Eddleman, and requests the family to wire him a loan. If he is unfortunate enough to pick the Eddleman residence, as he was, he is then told to try hitch-hiking back to Lexington and starting over. He made the mistake on this call of saying the quarter was over, which lacked a week of being the truth.

In some other cases, though, his story worked, and he has raked several other students' families for sums up to $25.

If your name ends with "Jr." we suggest you clip this and send it home to tip off the folks. As far as we know, the scheme is still operating, and the operator may be making a pretty good living at it, if he calls enough numbers.

ALUMNI NEWS

THEN and NOW

PERSONALITIES

Dear Alumni:

This column will depart from its usual procedure today, and attempt to bring to you some of the color, the thrill, the fellowship, and the pride involved in Kentucky's first Madison Square Garden and its achievement in winning the N.C.A.A. basketball championship.

By the time this copy of the Kernel reaches you, the results of the Olympic Trials will be decided and Kentucky's fate in the first Olympic basketball tournament will be sealed. But whatever the outcome, Kentucky alumni everywhere may take great pride in the showing their Wildcats made before a Metropolitan audience which bowed down in admiration of the national collegiate champions.

Kentuckians gathered from everywhere to view the team's successive victories in the Garden. Jack Rash, '30, formerly of Henderson, now practicing medicine in Miami, Fla., arrived for the Kentucky-Holy Cross game and was staying through the Olympic trials.

Marshall Barnes, '24, and his wife, Anne, and Malcolm Barnes, '31, and his wife, came up from Beaver Dam and spent the week. Tony Disman, Ex. '19 and Mary; Jere Beam Ex. '22 and Lucy '22, flew up from Louisville. Mrs. Homer Baker, wife of Kentucky's loyal "Bake," Ex. '28, and Mrs. C. G. Patrick, mother of Charlie Ex. '46, and Mrs. Carlisle Myers, mother of Carlisle Jr., '48, formed an enthusiastic group.

Gene Bryant, '41, of Lexington; Burgess Carey, Ex. '26, and Charlotte; Ray Souley, Ex. and Elizabeth; "Doc" C. M. Blanton, '29, and wife, Frances, from Harlan; Mary Daimonfield, '39, of Lexington; Elizabeth Hunt, '47, of Washington, D.C.; Jim Moore, '36, secretary of the Philadelphia club; Wash Serini, '48, of Tusculum, N.Y., ex-Wildcat football star; Dorothy Stahl, wife of Elvis, '36, UK law professor; Phil Sutterfield, '44, who broadcast the games for the home-folks; Margie McLaughlin, '03, ex-secretary of the Alumni Association and Frances Leach of Lexington, who came from "the North Broadway" school to become some of Kentucky's most enthusiastic supporters; were among those who came early and lingered to see Kentucky cop the crown.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blazer, Sr., of Ashland, attended the first game. Mrs. Blazer is a member of the University's Board of Trustees and Paul Jr. was graduated from UK last June. Incidentally, Ashland turned out to greet the team on its way east, and had a fine pep meeting and radio broadcast with such interested alumni as Chauncey Foreney and Will Ed Covington there to welcome the Wildcats and wish them well.

New York alumni put the big pot in the little one for a get-together banquet Saturday night, March 20, honoring Dr. Leo M. Chamberlain, University vice president, and Mrs. Chamberlain. Approximately 100 alumni and Kentucky rooters attended and heard the vice president outline the University's progress in recent years. Duncan Stokes, '39, president of the New York Alumni, who has just been promoted to district freight and passenger agent for the Southern Railroad in New York, presided at the dinner.

A few New York Kentuckians at the dinner were Johnny Johnston, '41, Bob Baugh, '28, Robert M. Allen, '00, Rufus L. Weaver, '35, Bill Butler, '36, treasurer of the New York Alumni Association; Stephanie Sorrell, '41, club secretary; Georgia Suddarth, Ex.; Sid Hamby, '28; and many others who came to greet Dr. Chamberlain and to add to the enthusiasm and pleasure of the occasion.

Kentucky's junior Senator, John S. Cooper, former UK trustee, and brother, Don; Elizabeth Hunt, '47, and Edith Rankin of Lexington met the train to greet the returning rooters as we came through Washington last week, and to add their word of praise to Kentucky's fine

James R. Alley

Alley Wins Rifle Match

A University ROTC sharpshooter, James R. Alley of Lexington, made the highest individual score in the national among participants in the annual William Randolph Hearst National Inter-collegiate Small Bore Rifle Match, Col. G. T. MacKenzie, commandant, announced.

Alley fired a 197 out of a possible 200 points as a member of one of three rifle teams entered in the national "postal" competition. All firing was done on the range in Buell Army and scores sent to national headquarters. Other college teams in the country competed in the same way, which is conventional in inter-collegiate competition, and scores were matched to determine winners.

All-State Chorus To Be Held Here

Students from approximately 70 Kentucky high schools will participate in the All-Kentucky Chorus of the Kentucky High School Music Festival to be held May 6 on the campus, it was announced by Prof. Louis Clifton, director of Extension.

To achieve the honor of being the best sharpshooter in the national match competition, Alley made a perfect score of 50 in the prone position and 50 in the sitting position, a 49 out of a possible 50 points in a kneeling position and 48 out of 50 possible from the standing position.

Two of the three University teams entered in the match attained regional ratings, finishing second and third in the Second Army Area. Although gaining third place in the nation as a team in 1942, the current teams fired the highest scores ever made at the University. They were 941 and 937 out of a possible 1000 points.

The ROTC rifle squad is presently engaged in firing the National Army Inter-collegiate Match as a result of having placed high in a previous Second Army match. Competition in this engagement is among the top third of all ROTC collegiate rifle teams. The team is coached by Capt. Robert Ellison, M. Sgt. Elmer Kinker and M. Sgt. Edward Raber.

A message to you from the Chief of Staff

"April 6 is Army Day. It is a day which will have a special meaning for college men. More than half of you are veterans of the last war. Many of you are members of the Organized Reserve. Many others belong to the R.O.T.C. or National Guard.

"All of you are making a vital contribution toward World Peace and the security of this nation.

"The U. S. Army is the finest army in the world and the only one of its kind among the major powers. It is 100% volunteer. It is composed entirely of civilian soldiers . . . men like yourselves who realize that a strong America is a peaceful America, and that the responsibility of making America strong rests in the hands of every American citizen.

"The U. S. Army is not a large army, as armies go. It is shouldering tasks far greater than any other army of like size has ever attempted.

Our occupation force in Japan is the smallest per capita of any modern occupation army. Our force in Europe is the smallest of the three major powers.

"But behind this Army stand you men of the Organized Reserve and the R.O.T.C. I have known many of you personally. I have been with many of you in action. I know the fine type of men you are and the realism that leads you to equip yourselves with military training.

"Further, I know the valuable service you can render the nation in time of emergency. A great deal of the success of fast mobilization and the actual winning of the war was due to the 106,000 trained Reserve Officers and the top-notch National Guard units which were available for quick action.

"To you, on Army Day, I believe I speak for millions of Americans in offering commendation for the fine job you are doing."

Louisville And Baylor Easy Victims Of Wildcat Cagers

Kentucky 77, Baylor 59
Led by Alexander The Great Groza, Kentucky won its second victory over Baylor University within the span of six days. After trimming the cagers from Waco, Texas, 58-42, last Tuesday a week, in the NCAA finals, UK's racing Zip Kids came back to win again over Baylor last Monday, this time by a 77-59 margin.

As a result of this conquest, the mighty Wildcats can lay undisputed claim to being the nation's No. 1 collegiate basketball aggregation for the 1947-48 campaign.

For the Lexington Lynxmen, it was win No. 36. The defeat gave Baylor a final mark of the season.

Track Team Whitewashed At Purdue

By Winfield Leathers

Finally realizing what first-class competition is like, Kentucky's trackmen are bucking down to strenuous exercises and hard work as a result of UK's pointless showing in the Purdue Relays at Lafayette, Indiana, last Saturday.

Only one of the six Wildcat entries passed the qualifying tests to enter the finals of one of the meet's 15 events. Don (Bopey) Phelps, of UK football fame, came the closest to entering the scoring column for the Kentuckians by placing sixth in the finals of the 60-yard dash. Points were given only for the first five finishers.

Results of the qualifying heats show that Kentucky had four hurriers who just missed a chance for the finals as all came in third in their heat, when it took a first or second place showing to earn another try.

Johnny Melhus, Ralph Genito, and Dennis Rice—all 60-yard dashmen—were three of UK's near-missers when each crossed the finish line third in his respective heat. The fourth Kentuckian, high and low hurdler Tony Dallas, also fell short as he closed in third place of the low hurdles semi-finals.

Of the 26 schools sending representatives to the meet only seven entered teams for the 440-relay and Kentucky's team, made up of Phelps, Melhus, Dallas, and George Kirchner, finished seventh.

Biggest disappointment so far is not with UK's showing in the Purdue Relays but with the small number, approximately 75, of students that signed up for track, with only one out of every four signers showing up for the daily workouts, which start at 3 p.m. and run until 4:30 p.m.

The freshmen, whose interest for sprinting glory is practically nil, are very few in numbers and, sadly enough, the freshman squad opens its competition Monday, April 5, when the varsity squad of Millersburg Military Institute, Millersburg, Ky., travels to Lexington for a clash on the University cinders.

Next on the schedule for the varsity thin-clads is a meeting on April 10 with Marshall College of Huntington, W. Va., and on April 17 with Vanderbilt University of Nashville, Tenn.

Kentucky 91, Louisville 57

It took the Kentucky Wildcats a little over two minutes to catch the Cardinals of Louisville last Saturday night in Madison Square Garden arena, but from then on the Cats gave Coach Hickman's Red Birds a sound thrashing which will long be remembered by the NIAA champions. The final score in the Olympic Trials quarterfinals, played before 15,927 spectators, was 91-57.

Led by Doc Compton, Card center, the Louisville quintet jumped off to a 5-0 start in the first minutes of action. Kentucky then roared back in typical Wildcat fashion and scored 14 straight points before the UL cagers hit for their next tally. With Ralph Beard, Wai Wai Jones, Alex Groza and Cliff Barker tossing field goals in from all over the place, Kentucky took full command of the situation as the score bounced from 14-7, to 25-9, then 39-17 before the first semester ended with the Cats ahead, 43-29.

The Lynxmen outscored Louisville by 14 tallies in the first half; by 20 markers in the second half.

Baseball Nine Draws 43 Men

By Kent Hollingsworth

With the first baseball game only a week off, 43 men are still playing pepper and throwing baseballs at each other behind Alumni Gym, biding their time until five first string players return from New York, and a park large enough to hold batting practice can be obtained.

Couch Chuck Settle scratched dust up with his spikes, and murmured, "It certainly is going to be mean to meet those southern boys, who have been playing for a month, when we haven't had more than a few days of batting practice."

Athletic Director Bernie Shively is expected in this morning, and will arrange for the Wildcat baseballers to use Legion Field, out on South Broadway, but even if the team starts practicing there Saturday, only four full days of practice can be held, prior to the season's opener with Georgia Tech in Atlanta.

Pitchers Bob Hatchet and Willie Allen, lettermen last year, are rounding into form, and a boy named John Minor can throw that rock with a whizz.

Gerry Butterman and Buddy Clegg are handling the catching duties, and Clegg appears to have quite a nice peg.

Returning lettermen are: T. Laudeman, Ralph Beard, John Cross-

Tennis Team Troubled

All that racket coming from the Downing Tennis Courts is the UK Tennis team banging their heads against a stone wall.

All they want to know is why can't the Tennis team be given four courts from 3:00 on, every day, and why is it that if one of the nine members of the team gets a free hour during the day, and decides to get in a few swings, he has to pay the usual 15c student charge to walk on a court.

A Declaration by the Representatives of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in General Congress assembled

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's god entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness; that to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall

Part of the original manuscript of the Declaration of Independence, written by Thomas Jefferson. It is now on display aboard the "Freedom Train." The revisions shown were included in the document finally presented to the Continental Congress.
